

How to Visit a Museum, Special Collections Library, or Historic Site

DO NOT...

- Touch things, unless invited by staff.
- Take pictures without getting permission.
- Chew gum, eat food, or bring any beverage other than water in a tightly sealed container.
- Write with a pen. Bring pencils!
- Wear flip flops. Come dressed for a long day that will require a lot of walking.
- Bring heavy/bulky purses or bags.

DO...

- Dress respectfully but comfortably. Plan to be outside for part of each day, and then in cool/cold collections areas.
- Pay close attention to our hosts and presenters when they are talking to you.
- Ask questions (especially to help you fill out the Site Evaluation form).
- Say "thank you" to our hosts.
- Be prepared to follow instructions from hosts, who may have their own rules.
- Bring a notebook and writing surface.
- Bring a camera for flash-free photography.
